

Greetings my dear friend,

This holiday season, I've decided to send a card of my own to the people of Earth. Please help by passing it along to everyone you can.

I will admit it's better that my time with you is remembered incorrectly than remembered not at all. However, the fact is that I was born into your world many times, and have lived many lives with you.

During each of my incarnations, I did what I could to share with you a greater Truth. While some of you understand what I tried to teach, the vast majority are still missing the point. Hopefully, you're ready to accept it now.

The point is that the more you express love and kindness to others with true sincerity, the more love and kindness you will receive. Maybe not always from those you are kind and loving towards, but always from the Creator of all that is. This is the nature of reality. Karma, or the Law of Attraction, as some call it.

Please accept this card in the spirit in which it is given.

I love you, and want you to be happy. If you truly want to celebrate my time with you, be kind to everyone you meet, not just a few days a year, but all the days of your life.

You and your life will be blessed.

- Christ, Buddha, Muhammad, etc.
